The village was quiet enough; There was a shop nearby and even lake with frogs in it. My cousins and I did what kids do.
We played tag, hide and seek, video games, played around the house, jumped on the trampoline inside at school and on the field.
Doing nothing important

The city was usual enough; it had a beach, houses, friends, animals and even big diving boards. My Dad, cousins, sister, uncles, aunties and I did what families do. Manu off the highest one, my cousin Detroit back slapped next to the rocks, tried to relax.
Doing nothing important.

The village was usual enough; it had shops, a police station, a well and a river around it. My grandad and I did what families do. Hunt deer, hike up mountains, travel through other villages.
Doing nothing important.

The place around me was usual enough; it had a river, an old swing tied to a big tree, a bridge above the river and it even had flash houses around it. I sometimes I swang on the creepy swing. My family and I did what families normally do.
We feed the ducks and after we chased them, climbed the trees, did some mischief, we put our legs in the freezing cold damp water. |
Sitting down doing nothing important.

12 June

Dear Parents, Whanau and Caregivers
Kia Ora Koutou.

We have had a wide range of illness across the school, with many of our teachers also catching the bugs. I have been proud of the way our children continue to be the best they can be when relievers are teaching them. We are lucky to have a consistent group of relief teachers who enjoy being in our classrooms.

Children may talk of Whaea Maya, Matua Vin, Mrs Wilson, Mrs Lane, Mrs Bradley and Mrs Mangin, who are our most frequent relievers and know our children well.

Thank you for keeping your children at home when they are sick as it does limit the spread of winter bugs.

Head Lice

Head Lice seem to be hanging around at the moment. Regular checking of your child's hair is important. If you need support, let the office know.

Regards, Kay Cleaver, Principal.

We are currently in the process of reviewing the end of year reports. It would be useful to know what information parents and whanau would like to be given about their child.
