

Room 8

Hope you enjoy this selection of written gems from our room !

At my grandma's house her cat died and she was sad; like super sad. This is how it happened. She got lost on a holiday. The cat was sick but she came back. She was still very sick so Aunty Elizabeth tucked the cat in bed. Then she died.

"If you won't eat your veges you won't get your sweets." Some Mums say that but my Mum doesn't.
Aleena

Last night my cat was in my room. When my Dad opened the door she had snuck in wearing her winter coat. She is so soft. She always comes in my room She's hungry and drinks her water first. My Mum and Dad don't like her coming inside. I like her coming in my room. She sneaks into my room so she can snuggle into my face.

Room 8 and Room 7 practised gymnastics in the hall. We did tuck, L shape and straddle. It was a challenge for us. We were learning to do pencil rolls on the mat. I did jumping in the hoops too. Mrs Elliot told us to stop and she said balance on one foot. When I did it I wobbled and wobbled.

McKenna

When I was three it took a long time to make my bed and my mum was surprised that I could make it. So my mum took a photo of me. My Mum printed it and put it on the fridge.

Kailah-Jay

I can't do my shoelaces. I can't tighten it today. Sometimes my Mum helps me do my shoelaces. I keep trying so I know how.
Hazel

There was lots of traffic going to Auckland.
I saw some cars and trucks on the bridge.

Cat! Cat!
Look at the cat.
Dad can we feed it
milk?
Yadon

My brother doesn't like his vegetables so he puts it on my mum's plate. Then she puts it back on Hunter's plate.
Ava

After kai time I went to play tag robot. It was hard.

28 August 2019

Yesterday Grant Edwards took 13 children to compete in the Fairfield Cluster Cross Country at Porritt Stadium. Grant was extremely impressed and proud of the way the children, participated, encouraged each other and were the responsible and respectful kinds throughout the event. Milad Alamshah placed 4th in the Year 5 boys event. All the other children ran well, finishing mid field in their events.

Well done children. Thank you for being the best you could be!

Tomorrow, a Year 6 Kapa Haka group will perform at the opening of Kmart and Whaea Zoe is taking a gymnastics group to compete in the Hamilton Gymsports Festival. As always, both these groups of children will be outstanding representatives of our school.

Mid Term Break

Next Monday 2nd September, school will be closed so the children and staff can have a well earned break. You should feel proud of the progress your children are making. This progress is due to what our staff do each day to engage children with learning.

Last year, the board approved this long weekend and viewed the day as a 'wellbeing' break for the Bankwood Community.

Last day for Bookclub orders is Thursday 29 August, 3pm.
