

Dear Parents, Whanau and Caregivers
Kia Ora Koutou.

3 March 2021

Thank you for the way you have slotted back into the COVID Level 2 expectations. Children are very settled which is a credit to you for reminding them about what we all need to do.

Reminders

- Please make sure that your child has a drink bottle as the drinking fountains are not to be used
- Gates do not open until 8.30am
- Hand sanitiser is available at the gate and in classrooms

To keep children safe we minimise the number of adults inside the grounds so please

- wave to you children at the gate
- do not go inside classrooms
- wait behind cones at front or on field at back gate

Appropriate Clothing

Lots of children are wearing sweatshirts and long pants to start the day. However, as the day gets warmer they often overheat as they do not have a tshirt or shorts underneath. Please check your child wears layers. Also can you name clothing so it is easily identifiable.

Tryathlon for Y3-6 children has been postponed.

Oh no! Look What The Cat Dragged In By Room 13 Authors

Oh no look what the cat dragged in. It was a Saturday morning two little boys came downstairs. They saw their horrified grandmother point to the living room. They ran to the living room they saw a dead violent lion on the ground blood running on its back the two kids screamed aaaaaaaaaaaaaaah. By Stacy.

Oh no! look what the cat dragged in. On Thursday my scary cheeky cat dragged in a dragon. The dragon did not like my cat. On Saturday my cat dragged a white tail spider. On Sunday my cat dragged in slugs. On Monday my cat dragged a gift for me. By Omid.

Oh No! Look what the cat dragged in. On Thursday my fat cat dragged in a big black mouse. It was ugly and fat and a cheeky mouse. I looked in the kitchen and the cheeky mouse was eating my block of cheese on the counter and I was gonna save it for lunch. When I looked in the kitchen I was so terrified so I screamed. The next morning I cleaned up all the mess like I vacuumed and wiped the dirty things. By Latita.

Oh no look what the cat dragged in. On Thursday my big fat cheeky cat dragged in a big giant giraffe and it was trying to fight my poor cat. But my cat scratched the giraffe and it went out the door. My cat won. When it was night time I went to bed but I heard the door open and I went down stairs. Then I saw my big fat cheeky cat drag in a polar bear and it roared at my cat. Then my cat scratched at him and hissed at the polar bear ramming at the door. My cat was a champion. By Kineisha.

Oh no look what the cat dragged in. On Thursday the cat dragged a gorilla he was mean big and crazy. He ate all the bananas when he finished he was mad cause we had no more then he smashed the kitchen he went upstairs and broke everything. From Idiris.
